Visiting tourists and resident Albertans alike are making heavy use of the roadside camping and picnic spots provided along heavily traveled highways by the Alberta Government. The Alberta Travel Bureau reports that the number of visitors camping out is almost twice that of 1957, and the trend is still growing in popularity. The Bureau estimates that 30 per cent of all motorists use the camping of picnic facilities.

The Department of Highways has located 43 roadside campsites throughout the province. Each is equipped with a rustic type shelter, cook stove, table and toilet facilities. Fresh water wells are provided wherever possible. Some spots have proven so popular that second shelter has to be built.

By the end of the season, Alberta's provincial parks will have 52 shelters, 850 picnic tables and 171 rest benches. The government will equip 21 locations this year with children's playground equipment. Many communities adjacent to overnight camping spots have applied playground equipment to encourage use of the province's tourist facilities.

In addition to the camp spots, the province has located dozens of highway tables. These are located wherever possible at viewpoints or other points of interest.

Total of out-of-province visitors is up seven per cent this year over 1957, national park registrations indicate. Visitors last year spent $65,000,000 during their stay in the province.

This Week's Hail Report

(Following is a report from the WR.D.C. hail suppression unit that is situated on the butte just west of town and covering an area of 75,000 acres, which includes the M.D. of Kneehill, Rocky View and the City of Calgary.)

"While ground generators were in action on every day during the past week, heavy hail suppression operations were conducted on two of these days.

"Heavy, but spotty showers began in the region to the north of Olds on Friday, August 29 and spread south and east through the protected area. Several reports of a 'few hail stones' mixed with rain were received at the Didsbury WR.D.C. office, but no damage had been reported to this date from the protected area. The heaviest show-activity was about on a line from just north of Olds through Acme.

One ground generator operator. The north of Olds, which is out of the hail suppression project, reported hail for more than 10 minutes, with heavy damage to ripe oats. The generator operator advised that the damage was quite restricted in the area.

"The second important storm developed northwest of Peribon on Labor Day. This one moved south-eastward, producing hail in the Peribon area. The area around and to the east of the town of Three Hills also received hail as the storm progressed south-eastward and into the protected area.

"Reports from the Three Hills area so far indicate that the hail was soft and generally small, and that damage was negligible. The latter storm, however, has not been completely checked. First reports, though, are very gratifying.

"Again the WR.D.C. aircraft were used to supplement the ground generator operations, and to supply reconnaissance information.

"The scheduled date for hail suppression to end in the above mentioned districts is 12 noon, September 25th."

Just For The Record . . .

They've been hanging a small line on Calgary firms recently for sweeping refuse into the gutter in front of their business places. Sounds a little rough as they are the ones paying the shot for the roads, gutters, etc. The same situation could crop up here. It has been suggested that street cleaning equipment be purchased — could be this move will have to be made — but in the meantime let's co-operate with the town fathers and use a little more time and effort to make sure the hard-top does not become a rubbish-top. Keep your area clean, please!

Sitting On The Sidelines . . .

Watching provincial and federal groups eyeing the calendar for the next election dates and giving out with the wonderful things to come, we sometimes wonder where, when and how the mad merry-go-round will start making sense. The promises being made won't all come true, they won't all be false efforts; but how are we to distinguish between true and false? Seems like we peasants will have to sit on the sidelines and wait for the sun to shine on us. We could all stand a sunburn from any direction, providing it wasn't one that left us burning inside. So far the most we've had in the past few years from the powers that be is a slow burn, very slow.

Signs Of The Times . . .

A well known public official seems to have had the right idea when he took down the sign in his office that said "Smile" and replaced it with a new sign that reads "Smile Anyhow!" Makes sense?

What Other Papers Say . . .

THE CAMROSE CANADIAN says it was . . . intrigued this week by seeing Calgary Brewing and Malting Company advertising in the British Columbia newspapers that came to its office for checking purposes. In Alberta it is supposed to be a sin to publish a liquor advertisement, yet the provincial government chalked up more than four million dollars in liquor profits in the three months period of April, May and June of this year. It does not make too much difference to us, but when we see the best read and most popular magazines coming into Alberta carrying juicy revenue advertisements that are denied to Alberta publishers, we are inclined to wonder how ethics and liquor profits are reconciled in our fair province.

The editors of THE MACLEOD GAZETTE say that they are no mind readers . . . Occasionally we hear complaints that items in the paper or persons are interested do not appear in print. The cause of this is that some people expect us to have a seventh or eighth sense of knowing what is happening. If they have something of interest, surely it requires little effort to notify us rather than squawk about it.

THE BROOKS BULLETIN says . . . Reduction of wheat growing can be accomplished only by "interference" of the government. If a government assumes the responsibility for marketing of any product, it naturally assumes responsibility for the welfare of the product, particularly as it affects the economy of a large portion of our population. Left to their own devices for wheat marketing, our farmers (those who survived) would of necessity be forced to turn to something else. In the meantime, they are victims of circumstances not entirely of their own making.

ANOTHER GEM . . . Reflect upon your present blessing, of which every man has many; not of your past misfortunes of which all men have some. — Charles Dickens

Big Game Rules Are Outlined

The 1936 big game regulations stipulate that gun sights may be levelled against sheep, goat and bear September 1. The licence for this game is $10.

An additional $5 licence entitles the hunter to bag one animal in the deer family and one bear each from the black and brown species. The game regulations for this year as laid down by the Alberta Department of Lands and Forests are as follows:

No hunter shall kill more than one male bighorn sheep with horns of a size sufficient to form a three-quarter curl or larger and one mountain goat, male or female.

No person in the open season for which a licence has been issued may kill more than one big game animal of the deer family, with or without antlers. That is to say, hunters are allowed one of the following: one deer, one elk, one moose, or one caribou.

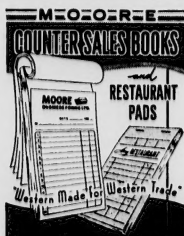

No person shall kill more than one grizzly bear and one black or brown bear. Also hunters in any open season, or any other time, are allowed to kill not more than one antelope.

The regulations stipulate that tags issued with licences must be properly and securely affixed to game. The hunter is urged to check with regulations when he buys his licence.

BACK IN ACTION . . .

Doctor: "How's the patient this fine day?"

Nurse: "I think he's gaining his consciousness. He tries to get down the foam off his medicine this morning."

SOW THISTLE: There has been an alarming increase in the instances of perennial sow thistle throughout not only the municipality but also throughout the province. It has been an ideal year and weeds in general have had a "field day."

Unless we all become really concerned about this increase in weed population and set out to do something about it the situation can become very serious. In the case of sow thistle there is something that can be done to control them, even at this time of year.

If you have sow thistle on your farm my advice is that you work the ground thoroughly with cultivator, plow or tiller as soon as possible after the crop has been removed from the field. Several good strokes given in the late fall before freeze-up does a lot of harm to the thistle root system.

If your infestation is real bad you will likely plan to summer-fallow the ground next year, but even if you do, at least one or more thorough strokes given this fall will get the eradication job started and will then be much easier to complete next year during the fallow season.

We can't afford to overlook the presence of weeds as they can seriously affect the economic standing of everybody. Weeds cost the farmers millions of dollars in lost production every year. This waste should be stopped, and can be.

NO PANTS — NO MONEY . . .

A New Jersey man, had himself quite a problem recently. The first thing Robert Patterson did when he woke up on the sidewalk one early morning was to reach for his wallet. He couldn't find it. His pants were gone.

Patterson told police he sat down on the pavement to rest and fell asleep. He searched for his pants on awakening and found them around the corner. His wallet, with $20, was gone.

School Day Specials !!

Back to the three R's and the kids

dia - let's send them off to school with a good lunch. Mom -

A good lunch should be -

Appetizing and Attractive - so wrap food well before you pack it in a clean, aired lunch box. Thermos bottles often present a problem.

They should be thoroughly washed, rinsed and aired each day. Each weekend, fill thermos with a solution of baking soda and allow to stand overnight. Put cork in a small jar filled with the solution and cork to force cork down into the liquid. This will keep the bottles sweet and clean.

Surprises help a lot in tempting appetites. A double decker sandwich, a twist of dried fruit, or candy - a muffin with date or fruit

in the centre; a jar of favorite dessert or something different every day makes eating school lunch an adventure.

A good school lunch should be -

Complete - It should supply one-third of the food need for the day.

This means -

1. Good Bread - Enriched, white, brown, whole wheat, rye, cracked

wheat, raisin or fruit loaf.

2. Muscle Builders - protein foods such as meat, fish, eggs, cheese or peanut butter.

Here are some suggestions:

Baked beans, mashed with crisp bacon and mustard pickle catsup, chili sauce or onion and salad dressing.

Apples chopped, mixed with nuts and creamed cheese.

Peanut butter with honey, jam or marmalade, with mashed banana, with chopped celery, nuts,

dates and raisins.

3. Milk - May be used as a beverage. Milk, chocolate milk or hot cocoa. (Never send soft drinks as a beverage - fruit juice, milk drinks or soups are much better for your child.)

Occasionally milk may be included as cheese, milk soup, or a milk

dessert.

4. Fresh Crisp Foods - A raw food, either a fruit, or vegetable such as raw carrot, turnip, lettuce, celery, or cabbage is needed to provide vitamins, minerals and roughage to the diet. They also add variety to the school lunch.

So, here's to "Better Lunches for Brighter Students" in the brand new '36 - '39 school term.

School Shopping Hints

Children's Shoes - Summer play

and growing feet demand that new shoes be first on the school shopping list.

Promote the life long health of your child's feet by -

1. Examine old shoes to see if they are still the right size - Soles curled at the tip, worn edges of soles or worn linings indicate shoes are too small and should be discarded.

2. Never hand shoes down from one child to another.

3. Don't shop without your child

if you can possibly help it.

4. Be sure to patronize a store with a large range of sizes.

5. Make the shoe store the first stop of the day.

6. Have foot measurements taken properly.

7. Don't try to save your pennies on something vital as shoes.

8. Avoid extra heavy shoes, for they can hurt delicate young feet.

9. Keep a careful check on your child's socks, too, making sure they are large enough.

FIRST PRIZE ADDS

UP TO $1000

More than 50 cash prizes will be awarded soon to prairie farmers by a Canadian fertilizer firm. A $2,000 cash prize contest, open to residents of Alberta, Saskatchewan,

Manitoba and the Peace River district, has been announced by the makers of Elephant Brand Fertilizers.

According to contest officials,

prizes are not necessary To enter, contestants need only answer seven easy "yes or no" questions

such as "Is nitrogen essential for plant growth?" — and the first prize is $1,000.

Entry forms are available from any Elephant Brand agent. Winners will be chosen by draw.

birds in this area starts on Satur-

The longer season in the south set at 20. For snipes the possession limit is 10, bag limit 5.

season in this area from Sept. 6 to

Dec. 14, is 5 and not more than 15 out the province, with similar dates applying to Hungarian and push partridge, prairie chickens and sharp-shinned grouse.

M.V.B.C. NEWS

(From Our Own Correspondent)

At the Traub-Wolfe wedding held in Kelowna, B.C., last Saturday, the following members of the faculty were present: Pres. and Mrs. Taylor, and Mrs. Edna Eby, who will be cooking in the college next winter. They returned home this week.

Mr. Arthur Eby went to Banff on Monday afternoon to get his daughter, Grace, who has been working there during the summer months. Grace is continuing her high school work this term.

Miss Gladys Eby entertained Mr. and Mrs. Harold Oke, and Mr. and Mrs. Vern Hanna at dinner on Friday evening. On Sunday she had visitors from the east: Mr. and Mrs. Pearson, Eby of Bredau. These friends are touring west during the next week and will return home by way of Seattle the following week. A number of Ontario friends have been on the campus during the summer months. Most of them express their admiration of the great west and say it is so different from what they had thought. Among them were two school inspectors of the Ontario Educational Board.

Mr. and Mrs. Ormand Sherick will be working on the campus during this month in preparation for school opening. They have been doing Vacation Bible School work, deputational work and now whatever presents itself here.

Miss Sherrill Taylor has been a guest of her grandmother, Mrs. M. A. Finlay, in Edmonton for the past week. She returned home on Monday. Keith stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Ken Sherick while his parents were away.

Friends from Windfield, B.C., have sent several large boxes of peaches to the school. Several times this summer fruit has been sent to the college and some of it has been put into the deep freeze, while the rest is done up as fruit and jam for winter consumption. The school will also need a lot of vegetables for the winter and will appreciate the help those in the district can give.

The college will open its doors to over 50 students on October 7th. There are still those in the community who may decide to register for courses. This college offers so much for young people and those who come with few exceptions, appreciate deeply the work given here and the help they have received while taking the years of study given. There will be an extended faculty this winter, and the fourth year will be offered to some 10 or 12 young people who want to take it before going into their life's work. Two of last year's graduates are leaving for further training. Arnold Dietz has been around packing up what he can't take with him as he leaves this week for Bethel College. Mervin Traub will leave presently for Cascade College.

CREMONA NEWS

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Mrs. Marion Reid was hostess Sunday at a family reunion at her home. Present for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Reid and family, Mr. and Mrs. L. Colwell and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. Bird and boys, Mr. and Mrs. L. Bird and family, Mr. and Mrs. V. Reid and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. Graham and family.

Mr. P. Maynes and Miss Donna Maynes returned home from a vacation in Texas last Friday.

Margaret Mork commenced her course at the Jacobson's beauty salon in Calgary on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Knox were Cremona visitors last weekend.

Mrs. E. Smith was a Cremona visitor last week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. McBain, Donna and Bernice, returned last week from a holiday in the U.S.

Correction on the Reigener-Klobordanz wedding write-up: the groom was Melvin Octave Reigener, not Richard, as appeared in print. The Sewing Circle held its bi-monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. M. Reid on August 27th.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE
Man's fundamental right to freedom from all kinds of bondage will be explained in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Man" at Christian Science Services Sunday.

Scriptural selections will include this passage from Romans: "For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father." (8:14-15).

Citations from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include the following (288:11-15): "The enslavement of man is not legitimate. It will cease when man enters into his heritage of freedom, his God-given dominion over the material senses. Mortals will some day assert their freedom in the name of Almighty God."

BERGEN NOTES

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Nickerson and family visited with her mother, Mrs. Laura Lusk, weekend. They were driving a new car they had won at the opening of Lablows, in Edmonton.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gilmore of White Rock, B.C., were recent visitors in the district.

Earl Lousheed is working on the new bridge construction over the Big Red River at Sundre.

Gardens and berries have been in abundance this year. The plum must be abundant as well as a sow on the Dick Wild farm farrowed 22 pigs.

Elworth Weber has been busy getting the local school ready for the opening, which took place on Tuesday. Mrs. Halverson will be teaching again this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Erickson have moved from their farm into Sundre, where she will teach again this year.

Mr. George Sexsmith of Toronto, formerly of Didsbury, visited here recently with his wife, Mrs. Erling Erickson and family.

LIGHT YOUR WAY ...

... WITH BIBLE STUDY

Let us today consider just what it means when you say: "I believe." We say "I believe, for no one can be saved by another person's faith. Each must believe for himself. Just as we can not eat or sleep or learn for another, neither can we believe for another. But here is an individual who boldly states: "My mother sure was a Christian." And we answer: "That won't help you. Salvation is a personal matter. You must say 'I believe.'"

The next word to believe. Believe means "to trust" — to take God at His Word. The salute of faith is the touching of the brow, the lips, and the heart. That means with our mind we know; with our lips we give assent; and with our heart we trust. So the important thing about faith is not merely to know and assent, but to trust. All three are necessary. To illustrate, let us use a biblical example: Judas, the Betrayer, knew Jesus. He accepted Him as the Messiah, the Promised One. But, after he had betrayed Him, he failed to trust in Him and His promises that He came into the world to take the sins of the world upon Himself. And so Judas had no real faith.

True faith is the reliance on the Word and not on the deed. No reliance on anything else is not faith but superstition. Some say it does not matter WHAT you believe, just SO you believe. Three people state that the Church should be more tolerant. But I know you wouldn't accept such a situation in the area of medicine, for there tolerance of error can be very serious. No reputable pharmacist will tolerate substitution of drugs or alteration in prescribed amounts, for he knows such tolerance can be fatal. Why then should we want Christianity to adopt tolerance where matters of eternal truth are concerned? That which has to do with the welfare of the soul must be subject to the vagaries and follies of human concepts.

When the jailer at Philippi asked Paul and Silas the important question: "Sir, what must I do to be saved?" he was given the clear answer: "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved." That directive is also given us. And in response we say: "I believe!"

Guest EditorialINJUSTICE AT VULCAN

Grade 12 examination results in Vulcan County are analysed by the Vulcan Advocate.

In the Vulcan high school, a mark of 50 per cent or better was obtained on 79 per cent of the papers written.

In the other high schools in the county, a 50 per cent or better mark was obtained on only 30 per cent of the papers written.

Thirteen of the 21 grade 12 students in the Vulcan High School passed their complete matriculation. Only two of the 41 in the other high schools did the same. It is not at all likely that there is such a striking difference in the intelligence of the two groups of students, those attending the Vulcan high school and those attending the others. The difference in marks obviously is due to difference in teachers or teaching.

This is a serious reflection on the quality of education opportunity in Vulcan County, and we think the school authorities should investigate it.

What is the experience elsewhere in the province? Do the pupils in the larger schools have a much better chance of passing?
